LEWISHAM SPEAKING UP

FUND RAISING OFFICER

Part time - £25 - 27k pro-rata [based on experience], plus 5% pension, generous benefits, and performance related annual bonus.

Lewisham Speaking Up, the advocacy charity led and for people with learning disabilities based in Lewisham is looking for a dedicated Fund Raising Officer, a new role within the organisation.

It's an exciting opportunity for a motivated self starter who wants to develop a career in charity fund raising. We seek a determined innovator who can engage funders and supporters with our unique vision and purpose. The person we seek will seize opportunities for broadening our reach and be of critical importance in our mission to support the voice of vulnerable adults with a learning disability.

They will be responsible for sourcing direct funding from a range of sources ensuring that Lewisham Speaking Up has financial stability. The right person will be creative and dynamic, a networker able to attract and influence potential donors. Never satisfied with the status quo, the person we seek will show passion for the role and its aims by developing and growing it over time. They will lead, in line with agreed targets, all our fundraising activity, including volunteer fund raiser support.

This role demands energy, positive thinking and a can do approach to working with an experienced team. Reporting to the Director and Trustees, the person we seek will be critical to our future success, and make a major contribution to our profile and reputation for taking a lead from our beneficiaries.
