Learning Disabilities Liaison Team Leader

Band 7, full time*£30 764 - £40 558 per annum

Are you a registered nurse with experience in supporting people with Learning Disabilities to maintain and promote their health? Have you good clinical leadership skills and are you able to manage and motivate others? If so, then you may be the new Team Leader we are looking for, to manage our small Learning Disabilities Liaison services who work across all adult areas of our acute hospital. The LD Liaison team supports our clinical teams to appropriately manage patients with Learning Disabilities who are attending or admitted to hospital for a range of clinical procedures/treatment. This involves preparing individuals for their hospital stay, leading the development of their care plan, facilitating reasonable adjustments to care/treatment plans, ensuring Best Interest decisions are made appropriately and lawfully, advising and supporting patient families, facilitating appropriate discharge planning and educating clinical staff at ward level.

We are looking for an experienced, dynamic nurse with good leadership skills, enthusiasm and good ideas for the ongoing management and development of this specialist team.

Informal enquiries can be made to the LD Team on 01752 431566 or to Karen Grimshaw, Associate Director of Nursing on 01752 439497.
