

Ann Craft Trust Open Seminar Series 2010

Supporting Parents with Learning Disabilities 14th September 2010

Aims:

- Best practice when engaging and communicating with parents with learning disabilities
- Appropriate support systems

Objectives:

Raised awareness of:

- What is a learning disability?
- Syndromes that may affect cognitive impairment
- Identifying a person who may have a learning disability
- The specific needs of parents with learning disabilities
- Possible communication needs
- The importance of using accessible information

Download our booking form here

ACTing against abuse