

A study about how parts of the brain work in people with Down Syndrome

My name is Carla

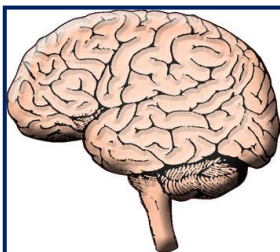

I am doing some research

Research is when we ask people questions and do tests to find out things

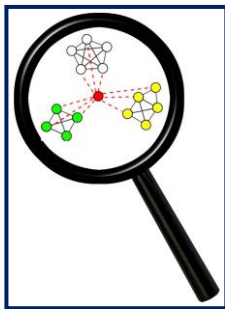

I am finding out about people with Down Syndrome

I want to find out how different parts of the brain work in people with Down Syndrome

I want to find out about differences between different people with Down Syndrome

I want to find out if there are genetic or other reasons for this

I would like you to help me

- because you have Down Syndrome
- because you are 16 years old or older

The information you give can help to make things better for people with Down Syndrome
