

Getting to the Cardiff Campus - ATRium Building

The ATRium Building is situated in Wales' lively capital city, Cardiff, close to the bustling city centre (a top 10 UK shopping destination) with a huge selection of high street and independent shops, restaurants and bars.

By Car: From West: Leave the M4 at J29 and travel along the A48(M) for about four miles. At the junction with the A4232 (Cardiff East / Docks) leave the A48(M) and stay in the left dedicated lane. Keep left (do not take the flyover) and turn right at the traffic lights on to Newport Road. Follow the road for another 2.5 miles into the city centre. Park in one of the public car parks indicated on the map below (there is no visitor parking available at the ATRium Building).

From North / East: Leave the M4 at J32 (A470) and follow the A470 into the city centre (map indicates recommended route). When you see the large white buildings of City Hall and Cathays Park (key 10) on your left, turn left on to Boulevard De Nantes and go straight on at the next lights. Follow the road as it bears right, and after the railway bridge turn right at the lights. Follow the road around (as indicated) and you will see ATRium Building on your right. Park in one of the public car parks indicated on the map below (there is no visitor parking available at ATRium Building).

By Train: The nearest mainline service is Cardiff Queen Street station (key 7).
