

Making a difference for parents with a learning disability

How to provide good support to enable good parenting

A one day training event on Friday 4th February 2011

This training is delivered by three trainers – two are parents with a learning disability

Venue details Lodge Room, Austin Court, 80 Cambridge Street, Birmingham B1 2NP

http://www.theiet.org/about/locations/austin_location.cfm

Time coffee and registration from 9.30am course 10.00 to 4.00pm

Cost £95 per person

Booking details mail@building-bridges-training.org or download the booking form from our website

Who is the training for?

This training event is suitable for staff from all disciplines who come into contact with parents who have a learning disability. It is particularly focussed to staff working in children's services who do not have extensive experience of people with learning disabilities. The training is delivered through a mixture of presentations, personal stories, group activities and handouts.

Learning outcomes for the day

- * To explore some of the effects of having learning disabilities and the impact on parenting ability and for the children
- * To know what types of support parents with learning disabilities need and the best way this can be delivered
- * To understand some of the barriers when providing support and how to overcome them
- * To know where to go to get further resources