Advanced Notice of Forthcoming Workshops

To explore practical ways of working with individuals who display high risk behaviours and how to create and maintain a person centred approach.

To enable participants to develop ways of meaningfully and realistically involving people with severe reputations in the care and support they receive.

Introducing participants to ways of thinking about monitoring and evaluating services in person centred ways.

To enable participants to develop ways of keeping people who use services and members of staff safe from abuse.

Price per place £150 + vat
