

Great Job Good Salary Real Opportunity For a parent with a learning disability

Dear Sir / Madam

Could we please ask you to use your links within the community to pass this information on to anyone who you think may be interested in this job opportunity.

CHANGE is a national organisation that campaigns for the rights of people with learning disabilities including people with learning disabilities who are deaf or blind.

We have a new job open to any person from a black or ethnic minority community.

The job is to work for CHANGE and the Race Equality Foundation to help make their training programme for Black & Ethnic Minority Parents accessible for parents with learning disabilities.

CHANGE will provide support for this new worker so that they can do their job.

If you would like to know more please contact CHANGE on: 0113 2430202.

Yours sincerely

