

Call for Action Campaigning

What's it all about?

A group of self-advocates from Yorkshire will be talking about:

- How they campaign for change for the better
- How people with learning difficulties can campaign locally and nationally
- How to join up with other important groups
- Doing dinner hour protests

When will it be?

This live broadcast will be on 21st July at 11.00am to 12.00pm and is aimed at:

- Self-Advocates
- Supporters
- Activists
- Friends
- Contacts
- Parents
- Carers
- Service Providers

This meeting is being run by the Advocacy and Leadership project.

After the broadcast there will be a break. During the break you can send in your questions and comments. We will answer them in the afternoon when we will broadcast again at 2.00pm.

How would it work?

The meeting will be run by Advocacy and Leadership Coordinators and it will be broadcast live over the internet.

What do we want you to do?

We want you to watch the meeting on the internet and send your questions and comments about campaigning in your local area.
