

Campaign for a Fair Society Scotland

Putting People in the Picture 8th Feb. 2012

To mark the first anniversary of the Campaign for a Fair Society, we are making a poster. We will use this to show that the cuts affect everyone across Scotland whatever your age. Here is a picture to show what we mean:-

We have added a few photos to this map of Scotland. We will put your face on the map in the area where you live. When we have gathered all of the photographs, we hope they will cover the map of Scotland.

If you would like to help and feature on the poster, you can do this by filling in the short form and sending it to us with a head shot photo of you. All photos and forms need to be sent back to us by 9th December 2011.

We hope to follow this up with local coverage and publicity events during the week leading up to 8th February.

One idea is to ask some of the people who are on the poster to tell their stories. If you would like to do this, you can tell us on the form.

If you would like to take part in a local event, you can tell us on the form. We will contact you to talk about this.
