

creative minds

Seeing, Talking and Questioning

A one day conference in Brighton about quality in learning disability led arts, managed and presented by people with learning disabilities

Monday 10th March 2014

10am until 5pm

Brighton Dome, Church Street, Brighton, BN1 1UD

£30 if you buy your ticket before 14th January 2014, after that tickets will be £40 (includes lunch & drinks)

www.creativemindsproject.org.uk

All spaces are accessible for wheelchair users

Starting a conversation about how we and others decide if art is good

The Conference is for:

- Artists and performers with learning disabilities
- Arts organisations
- Art critics
- Arts funders
- Venue programmers
- People from Universities
- Anyone who is interested in learning disability led arts

How to book a place:

You can book online here:

<https://creativeminds2014.eventbrite.com/>

You can email us at:

info@creativemindsproject.org.uk

You can call us on: 01273 234734

@cmproject2014

www.facebook.com/creativemindsproject

Conference timetable

10.00am: Registering and choosing your workshop, drinks and things to look at

10.45am: Conference opening speech

11.15am: Watching and talking about quality.

You can choose between:

- An exhibition by Action Space and Rocket Artists
 - Films from Oska Bright Film Festival
 - A dance piece by Coral Dance Company
-

12.30pm: Lunch

1.30pm: Watching and talking about quality.

You can choose between:

- Chris Pavia and Stop Gap Dance Company
 - Films from Oska Bright Film Festival
 - Theatre by Face Front Theatre
-

2.45pm: Break

3.00pm: What Next? Feedback and ideas

4.00–5.00pm: Networking and music from Beat Express

creative minds

Creative Minds currently includes:

Please join our conversation

Online now at: www.creativemindsproject.org.uk

With thanks to our funders

Supported by
ARTS COUNCIL
ENGLAND

