

CAN Communicate

Creative Accessible Needed

Training & Consultation

"Creative Communication"

How to listen to people who do not use traditional communication methods.

Interactive communication training for anyone working with, for, or on behalf of people with learning disabilities and/or high support needs.

An experienced trainer delivers a one day experiential workshop that covers a range of alternative communication methods.

- Photos, Pictures and Film
- Sensory work
- Drama
- Puppetry
- Making your own person centred communication tools
- Body language
- Masks
- Sensory Overload
- Creative records
- Factors effecting communication
- Advocacy
- Objects of reference
- Behaviour as communication
- And a few surprises!

The day can be tailored to your specific requirements and team building is an unavoidable side effect!

Groups that have found the "Creative Communication" training useful are varied, and include;

Nurses, Support Staff, Day Centre Staff, Advocates, Family Carers, Management Committees and Learning Disability Partnership Boards.
Organisations have included Local Authorities, Mencap, Local and National Advocacy Organisations and Private Service Providers.

Min 15 people - Max 30.

£55 per person including all resources, lots of fun and comprehensive training pack*

* Does not include venue & refreshments, as the training I offer is "In House". There are NO additional charges for my travel, accommodation or VAT. £55 per person is the total cost.
