

Moving Forward: The changing culture of low secure learning disability services

Complimentary Seminar

Tuesday, 7 December 2010

Oaktree Manor
Heath Road
Tendring
Essex
CO16 0BX

Partnerships in care
Changing lives for the better

Complimentary Seminar

Moving Forward: The changing culture of low secure learning disability services

TUESDAY, 7 DECEMBER 2010 AT OAKTREE MANOR,
HEATH ROAD, TENDRING, ESSEX, CO16 0BX

10:00AM-3:30PM

Sponsored by Partnerships in Care

Schedule	Speaker
10:00am	Welcome & Coffee
10:15am	Dr Karki – Consultant Psychiatrist North Essex LD services Challenges for service provision for people with LD, with an emphasis on local services and the reorganisation of the NHS
11:15am	Tea & Coffee
11:30am	Dr Meera Roy – Consultant Psychiatrist and Honorary Senior Lecturer Birmingham University Psychopathic disorders in people with Autism, including diagnosis and management
12:30pm	Buffet Lunch
1.15pm	Dr Lorna Duggan – Medical Director Kneesworth House, Partnerships in Care Low secure services for people with learning disabilities – meeting the challenge of quality-based outcomes?
2:15pm	Tea & Coffee
2:30pm	Trudine Newman – Consultant Forensic Clinical Psychologist Oaktree Manor, Partnerships in Care Stepping back down to local services – safe and sustainable discharges
3:30pm	Panel discussion

This free seminar is one in a series of ongoing professional development events for all staff by OTM (PiC) which is in the forefront of modern mental health/learning disability care

Contact Samantha Coburn on 01255 871017
scoburn@partnershipsincare.co.uk
To book your complimentary place

Partnerships in care
Changing lives for the better