A day about disability hate crime

From 10am until 3pm

On 31 March 2010

At Pudsey Civic Hall, Leeds

This event is about how bullying and abuse can be a disability hate crime.

A hate crime can start in a small way. Name calling. Pushing or hitting. Taking things from you. Find out what to do if it keeps going on, or if something really bad happens.

People with a learning disability will tell you what happened to them. They will show what can be done with support from the organisations that are there to help.

Come to this event and find out more about

- Telling someone if it happens to you
- Feeling safe
- Plans to make things better

Meet some of the people and organisations doing really important work about hate crime.
