

Disability Equality Training

Laurence Clarke

Tuesday 15th January 2008
9.30am to 4.30pm at New Century Halls

AIM: To increase participants understanding of the Social Model of Disability and its practical application in the workplace.

OBJECTIVES: By the end of the course participants will have:

- A greater understanding of the Social Model of Disability and its practical applications.
- Increased their knowledge of the Disability Discrimination Act and its implications for their work.
- Identified the barriers faced by disabled people and how they can work with disabled people to challenge and remove those barriers.
- A greater understanding of good practice when communicating with disabled people who may have a range of impairments.
- An understanding of appropriate language and terminology when referring to disabled people.
- Produced an action plan identifying short, medium and long term changes which will be implemented following the course.

Refreshments and Lunch provided

If you would like to book a place for this event please call
Colin 0151 287 7977 email: mpip@btinternet.com