

LEADING FOR OUTCOMES

NATIONAL LEADERSHIP CONFERENCE FOR LEARNING DISABILITY NURSES

22ND SEPTEMBER 2010

RIVERSIDE CONFERENCE CENTRE DERBY

Debra Moore associates in partnership with the Royal College of Nursing and the Department of Health is delighted to announce details of this important National Event for learning disability nurses.

All health professionals are aware of the dramatically changing landscape within the NHS and this day will provide an opportunity for nurses to explore what the future direction of travel may be for them. This will include the important and urgent issue of training and recruitment of learning disability nurses.

There will be opportunity to hear from national leaders and be involved in a range of discussions relating to learning disability nurses including

- Community learning disability teams – the role of the nurse and national survey findings
- Acute liaison nursing – what have we learned so far?
- Strategic health facilitation – impact on outcomes – contribution to the DES
- Assessment and treatment (including forensic) – developing care pathways

Speakers include

- Dr Ben Thomas – Director of Mental Health & Learning Disability Nursing Department of Health
- Anne Norman – RCN Adviser – Learning Disability Nursing (UK)
- Dr Michael Brown – Nurse Consultant & Lecturer – NHS Lothian
- Rick Robson – South Staffordshire & Shropshire Healthcare NHS Foundation Trust and Chair of the Access to Acute Hospital (A2A) Network
- Helen Laverty – University of Nottingham & Positive Choices Network for learning disability nursing students
- Debra Moore – Managing Director – Debra Moore Associates
