

My Life, My Health, My Say...

“an original and inspiring look at how people with learning difficulties should be treated”

Finally, a training dvd that combines an original and inspiring short film with a user-friendly training pack to get across the message of how people with learning difficulties want to be treated in health care settings...

Presented by Sean Wilson (Martin Platt, Coronation Street) and Julie Lowe (Salford star) with a supporting cast of people with learning difficulties and a host of health workers...

Who is it for?

Anybody who provides health or social care support to people with learning difficulties*...

To order your copy...

complete the order form attached

www.communitiesinsalford.org.uk

0161 787 7795

* This interactive training DVD meets requirements within the new Disability Equality Duty (2006) as it educates workers on improving their approach and their services for people with learning disabilities.

My Life, My Health, My Say...

DVD Order Form

Name:

Organisation:

Address:

Postcode:

Tel No:

Fax No:

Please supply copies of the My Health, My Life, My Say... Training Pack & Resource DVD at £50 per copy including p&p.

I enclose cheque payment for £ made payable to Salford CVS.

Please invoice £ to the above address

Quoting purchase order reference

Please post order form and payment to:

Salford CVS
The Old Town Hall
Off Irwell Place
Eccles, Salford, M30 0EJ

Tel: 0161 787 7795

Fax: 0161 789 0818

email: office@salfordcvcs.co.uk

Delivery will take place within 21 days of receipt of payment

Company Limited by Guarantee: 1948293

Registered Charity Number: 519361