The National Society
for Epilepsy

PLEASE JOIN US FOR A DAY OF LECTURES, TOURS AND WORKSHOPS WITH NSE'S MEDICAL PROFESSIONALS

Lectures will be given by NSE's medical professors.

Professor John Duncan will present an update on NSE's medical research.

Professor Ley Sander will present on advances in anti-epileptic drug treatments.

Tour

Visit our medical assessment unit or dedicated MRI suite, or do some informal networking with colleagues.

Workshops

Choose between:

- 'Epilepsy and learning disabilities' and 'non-epileptic seizures'; and
- 'improving medicines adherence in epilepsy care' and 'emergency medication'.

Who should attend

Epilepsy specialist nurses, learning disability nurses, GPs and other allied health and social care professionals.

Certificates of attendance will be given.

This is an excellent opportunity to find out more about epilepsy while visiting the leading national epilepsy medical charity in its unique Buckinghamshire location.
