

Shifting Perspectives 2009

A photographic exhibition at the.gallery@oxo

Hosted by the Down's Syndrome Association

supported by

The Shifting Perspectives team of photographers, in partnerships with Down's Syndrome Association and GlaxoSmithKline return to the.gallery@oxo for the fifth year running.

In years gone by people with Down's syndrome were photographed as exhibits, their personality and dignity stripped bare, where one was not supposed to see the person, just the difference. Over the past five years, the ever-expanding Shifting Perspectives group of photographers can lay claim to a real transformation in the way that Down's syndrome is viewed through the medium of contemporary photography.
