

Family Matters

24th March 2011. Cardiff

A free event for disabled parents; including those with learning difficulties, physical difficulties or mental health issues.

There is a small fee of £15 for practitioners and support staff to help cover the cost of the event.

- The event will focus on sharing stories of the issues parents face and looking at positive ways to move forward through improving parenting skills and empowering individuals.
- The day will involve a number of speakers, some with lived experience, of the issues disabled parents face.
- Workshops and activities will run throughout the day which will offer practical advice and support.

“What we strive to do is help people define what they want to do with their lives.” George Ducharme ”

The day is structured in order for us to squeeze in as much practical support and information as possible.

However, if you are unable to make the whole day we will do our best to accommodate you. Contact Val McCoy to register your interest and for further details of the event.

Key Speaker George Ducharme is founder of the leading US social inclusion organisation Communitas Inc, and will discuss inclusion, empowerment and giftedness.
