THE NATIONAL COUNCIL FOR PALLIATIVE CARE

MAKING IT HAPPEN

USING THE MENTAL CAPACITY ACT TO IMPROVE END OF LIFE CARE

This conference will show how the Mental Capacity Act can help you improve care for individual people by giving practical examples from a range of perspectives. The day will bring together government strategy, legislation and existing tools and will explain how they fit together to promote improvements in care.

Includes sessions on:

- the Mental Capacity Act
- Advance Care Planning (including the new Preferred Priorities for Care tool)
- the forthcoming End of Life Care strategy

Delegates will have the opportunity to identify good practice recommendations for innovation in their own organisation.
