Early Bird Booking Discount 10% off

“What is Positive Prevention? Understanding Positive Prevention & Communication”

On Wednesday 5th & Thursday 6th October 2011
At Barceló Basingstoke Country Hotel, Hampshire

This year’s annual PROACT-SCIPr-UK® conference will explore the concept of positive prevention and the importance of communication when supporting individuals who may display challenging behaviour. The event will feature a range of presentations and practice based workshops from experts in the field of Learning Disabilities, Autistic Spectrum Disorder, Emotional and Behavioural Difficulties and Mental Health, all within the specialism of challenging behaviour.

The conference will disseminate and demonstrate best practice and explore research within services for children, young people and adults. Overall the conference will provide delegates with a wealth of knowledge and the opportunity to discuss and acquire innovative ideas and practical options to implement within their own settings and network with colleagues.

The conference will take place in the surroundings of the relaxing and stunning Barceló Basingstoke Country Hotel, where delegates will be welcomed with fine food and luxury spa facilities. The hotel is situated within a 45 minute train ride from Waterloo train station and a 30 minute drive from Heathrow Airport. For more information please visit www.barcelohotels.co.uk. Refreshment Breaks and Lunch will be provided on both days and there is an option of attending the Wednesday evening dinner accompanied with the prestigious awards presentation.

The conference programme is available overleaf and outlines the presentations and workshops available on the two days of the conference. Delegates are invited to attend both days or one day delegate rates are also available, please see the booking form below. Make sure you book before 8th August for your early bird booking 10% discount. And remember you do not need to be a PROACT-SCIPr-UK® Instructor to attend.
