

Annual Conference 2010

The Shape of Things to Come?

Supported Living in an Age of Austerity

25th November 2010
Manchester
Conference Centre

One place FREE to all member organisations upon subscription renewal for 2010/11

Additional places for member organisations - £95

Non-member places - £150

This conference will focus on national policy and regulation for people with learning disabilities, set against the backdrop of reductions in public expenditure.

Speakers include:

- Ann Williams, National Director for Learning Disability
- Tom Noon, Director, Cordis Bright
- Helen Lindsay, Provider Assessment Manager, CQC

See next page for details of workshops

Special commission:
"Belonging"

presented by the

Subject2Change
Theatre Group

All enquiries and to book places please contact

janet.brazendale@heritagecare.co.uk

020 8418 1821

You have a choice of two of these WORKSHOPS

1

Audit of Mental Capacity

Assessment Tool: Implications for People living and working in Supported Living settings

Toby Williamson, Mental Health Foundation

2

Community Building & Inclusion

Commitment - Challenge - Change

Jo Seddon, NDTi

3

Telling Stories

The use of Story Telling in Accessible Communications

John Kay, Advance & Bonnie Bennett, CR Active

4

The Housing & Support Challenge

Meeting Valuing People Now ambitions within the current economic climate

Karyn Kirkpatrick, Keyring

5

iplanit

Putting the Action into Planning

Sally Warren, Paradigm

6

Feeling Settled

Best practice in managing the move from Residential Care to Supported Living

Steve Strong, Valuing People Team and NDTi

7

Conflicting Rights?

Legal dilemmas in supported living

Trowers and Hamlyn, Solicitors