

FREE

A Hidden Truth: London

The Impact of Forced Marriage on People with Learning Disabilities

This free to attend full day conference will help you explore the forced marriage of people with learning disabilities, understand the signs of abuse and improve your awareness of best practice around working with individuals and within communities.

A Hidden Truth involves talks from academic experts and leading practitioners in the field of forced marriage and learning disabilities alongside facilitated round table discussions exploring regional issues.

Guest Speakers include...

Chaz Akoshile:

Home Office Head of the Forced Marriage Unit

Rachael Clawson:

Assistant Professor of Social Work (University of Nottingham) and Chair of the National Steering Group on Forced Marriage & Learning Disability

Anne-Marie Hutchinson OBE:

Domestic and International Family Law Expert and member of the National Commission on Forced Marriage at the House of Lords

VENUE: Dialogue Society, 402 Holloway Road N7 6PZ 10am - 4pm

To book a place or for more information please contact ann-craft-trust@nottingham.ac.uk / 0115 951 5400