

Pain Recognition and Management for people with Learning Disabilities

Monica Beacroft and Karen Dodd (2008).
Illustrations by Keith Jones

2 new booklets are now available:

Booklet 1 is for staff and carers working with for people with learning disabilities on how to recognize and manage acute pain.

Booklet 2 is in Easy Read format to help people with learning disabilities learn about pain and what they can do to manage it. It is recommended that each person with a learning disability has their own booklet.

Both booklets have picture aids to help people with learning disabilities indicate the site, severity, duration and type of pain.
