

Good Practice in Parenting Support for Parents with a Learning Disability: Project report

A joint education and practice project that was designed, delivered and evaluated between November 2012 and November 2013. The project initiated between De Montfort University Leicester and Leicestershire Partnership Trust (LPT) had a focus on the following:

- To map those involved in the assessment and support of parents with learning disabilities
  - To seek good practice examples locally and nationally
  - To evaluate an assessment tool and pilot its use locally
- To disseminate and publish good practice in parenting assessment and support

See the recommendations and full report at www.dmu.ac.uk/nmrc and click the link for the Good Practice in Parenting Support project.

Project Leads: Nicky Genders, De Montfort University Leicester, Heather Crozier, CNLD Leicestershire Partnership Trust & Sarah Morris, CNLD Leicestershire Partnership Trust.