RCN health care support workers roadshows

The unsung heroes: valuing health care support workers

Following on from the highly successful 1st National Health Care Support Workers conference organised by the Royal College of Nursing, the RCN is delighted to announce a series of further events across the UK. These roadshows will inform you of latest hot topics and about some of the initiatives in your local area.

The role of HCSWs has grown apace in the last few years, and in many health care arenas is getting the education and recognition that is deserved. These roadshows will offer you a great opportunity to network and share experiences and ideas with colleagues.

Dates and venues

Inverness – 19 May 2008
 Belfast – 19 June 2008
 Cardiff – 10 July 2008
 Bolton Arena – 19 September 2008
 London – 27 November 2008

Roadshow fees

HCSW (RCN member)	£25.00
HCSW (RCN non-member)	£40.00
RCN member	£60.00
RCN non-member	£80.00

The roadshow aims to:

- Facilitate HCSWs, health care assistants (HCAs) and assistant practitioners (APs) to network with others from around their area.
- Consider the legal and professional issues affecting you in your work, specifically how accountability impacts on your work and an update on regulation.
- Provide information about resources the RCN is developing for HCAs and APs to support personal and professional development.

Outline topics:

- Vision for the future – the HCSW/HCA/AP role
- How far can you go? – education and training opportunities
- Whose duty is it anyway? – accountability and delegation issues
- Regulation update
- Nutrition
- Communication, communication, communication
- What can the RCN do for you?
