

High Quality Care for ALL

The next stage in supporting the health needs of people with learning disabilities

REVISED AGENDA! We are pleased to announce that this event will be chaired by Anne Williams, National Director for Learning Disabilities

A National Conference
9th December 2008
Bodington Hall
Leeds
9.30am – 4.15pm

What is this conference for?

This important and timely conference will provide opportunity for participants to hear about and discuss the latest national and local initiatives to support better health for people with learning disabilities.

Who should come?

The conference is aimed at commissioners and providers of health and social care and will focus on the strategic actions and initiatives within recent policy and guidance.

Topics:

Valuing People Now - The Health Agenda
Health Action Planning & Health Facilitation
Directed Enhanced Services for People with Learning Disabilities
Supporting the mental health of people with learning disabilities
Leadership & performance
NHS Confederation & Learning Disabilities
Joint Commissioning Project

Speakers include:

Anne Williams – National Director for LD
Helen Mycock - VPST
Stephan Brusck - DH/Westminster PCT
Pol Toner - NHS Eastern Region
Debra Moore - Independent Consultant
Jo Poynter – VPST
Yvonne Cox – NHS Confederation
Fiona Richie – Healthcare Commission
Suzie Fothergill – Skills for People

Price: £175+VAT.

To book a place, please email Kirsty at kirsty@debramooreassociates.com