

We work towards a society where everyone can be included

INAUGURAL LECTURE
Professor Kelley Johnson
Professor of Disability Policy and Practice

Towards a Good Life for People with Learning Disabilities

What does it mean to lead a good life?

How do we decide when life is good for ourselves or others?

Is it possible to 'construct a good life' for someone else?

This lecture explores the implications for people with learning disabilities of how we have thought about a good life in western society.

Monday 9 November
5.30
Reception Room
Wills Memorial Building

