About THE Event

This is the First National Conference dedicated to the needs of Registered Managers within the Learning Disability Sector in the UK. THE conference has been designed in collaboration with current Registered Managers and experts in the field and focuses on significant issues within Learning Disability settings. Attending this conference will offer a deeper insight into those issues and are presented by respected and expert speakers in the field of Learning Disability care. This Conference will offer you the opportunity to have space and time for YOU and YOUR development as a Registered Manager. Not just to reflect on the good practice of others, but to share some of the challenges as well the great work of YOUR service. All THE conferences provide an opportunity to network with others and through 'POST IT' find practical solutions to the challenges you face working as a Registered Manager.

THE Conference Will Benefit:

- All Registered Managers responsible for Learning Disability Provision
- Staff Aspiring to Become Registered Managers of the Future
- Providers of Health & Social Care
- Independent Learning Disability Services
- NHS Learning Disability Services
- Associated Charitable Organisations
- Staff working in Supported Living Schemes
- Local Authority Providers
