

Ensuring quality “Health for all” for people with a learning disability

Northumbria University invites you to attend a one-day conference on 23 February 2011.

- Do you deliver high-quality health care?
- Come forward and celebrate positive practices in delivering health care for people with a learning disability
- Come and learn how your services can address the needs of people with a learning disability

Chaired by Sir Jonathon Michael (Health Care for All, DH, 2008)

Keynotes by Dr Ben Thomas (Department of Health)
Ms Beverley Dawkins (MENCAP)
Prof Gyles Glover, (Learning Disability Public Health Observatory)

You may be interested to attend and/or present at this conference if you are:

- A worker in mainstream health care services
- Work in a GP practice
- A mental health professional
- A learning disability professional
- A person with a learning disability or carer
- An unpaid or paid carer for people with a learning disability

You may want to present a short 30 minute presentation or a poster or JUST ATTEND AND ENJOY THE DAY.

Cost for the day is £50 per person including lunch and refreshments. (Please note bookings are non-refundable.)

Please complete the enclosed application form and send it back to hs.hcsevents@northumbria.ac.uk

Presenters, please send in your presentation details on the form enclosed by 1 January 2011. Please note you will be informed about acceptance of your presentation by 10 January.