

Learning Disabilities Observatory 1st Annual Conference 22nd September 2011, London

The Right to Health: putting Healthcare Right

	The Learning Disabilities Observatory started work in April 2010 and has already done lots of work about the health, healthcare and healthcare needs of people with learning disability.
	This conference is about how people with learning disabilities in England are still experiencing poor Health and how we can improve their health and healthcare. This is important now because changes in the laws called Public Sector Equality Duties can help us do this.
	Four different groups will be telling us what they think: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• The Learning Disability Observatory• Leaders in Equalities, Health Service and Local government• Self Advocates and Family Carers• Commissioners and providers of Health and Care services
	The conference starts at 10.00am but please arrive from 09.30am to register and for coffee
	The conference will end at 4.00pm
