Learning Disability

Exhibition

Today

Attended by over 3,000 visitors, Learning Disability Today is the biggest event in the UK offering inclusive and sector-wide information on housing, employment, research, education, training, health and well-being.

Learning Disability Today shares best practice, explains policy, and showcases successful projects through seminars, interactive zones and the exhibition.

Book your ticket today!

The seminars

Engage in discussion with speakers and visitors from across the sector, from national policy and strategy, to frontline workers, advocacy groups and people with learning disabilities. The seminars offer you a platform for sharing knowledge and debate.

This year's theme is 'making it happen' and aims to translate the latest policies and guidelines into really practical examples of best practice.

- Keynote address from the minister
- Total transformation masterclass: funding from health to social care
- Housing options
- Getting a life

- Living safely in the community
- Employment
- Dementia
- Routes to self-directed support
- Making life easier with assistive technology
- Community building: a person-centred approach
- Mental well-being
- Access to healthcare.

Programme subject to change.
