Find out about taking care of your eyes in Huntingdon on

15th November 2012

What's it all about?

People with learning disabilities are 10 times more likely to have serious sight problems than other people.

SeeAbility is holding this event to make sure people with learning disabilities and their supporters know about good eye care.

This event is being chaired by SeeAbility's eye 2 eye ambassador Scott Watkin.

At the event you will be able to:

- ✓ Find out about looking after your eyes
- ✓ Hear about SeeAbility's eye 2 eye Campaign and what is happening to help make eye care better for people with a learning disability in the UK
- ✓ Tell us about your experiences of eye care
- ✓ Get a goody bag of information to take away and share with other people from your area

There will also be lots of activities on the day to help learn about:

- Having an eye test
- Cleaning and looking after glasses
- Help for people who can't see

Who is this event for?

The event is for people with a learning disability and their carers or supporters

The event is free to come to and is being funded and supported by NHS Midlands and East

When is it?

Thursday 15th November 2012

It will start at 10am and finish at 3pm
