

Keep all children and young people safe.

Support children to grow up with families.

No child should live in an institution.

Find out what each individual child needs.

Children and young people with intellectual disabilities need good healthcare.

10 Promises from Governments across Europe about the rights of children and young people with intellectual disabilities.

Involve children and young people and their families in making choices.

WHO Declaration on Children and Young People with Intellectual Disabilities and their Families.

Train staff.

Make sure services for children with intellectual disabilities and their families are good.

Pay money to make sure every child gets good health care.

