

This is Me Me and Me! A Big Event

July 22nd
10.30am-3.00pm
Bradford

What's it all about?

This day is all about good communication, support and citizenship for people with high support needs.

Inclusion North and Doncaster Advocacy did some work last year to help people make films about their lives.

Films about their Person Centred Plan, Health action plan or just a way to celebrate who they are. Using film has proved really useful for lots of people who need a lot of support in their lives.

The day will give you a chance to see Pauline's film 'You say it Best' and learn from Kate that doing this definitely isn't Rocket Science!

The day will:

- Show you how you can use film in different ways.
- Give you a chance to think about your role in supporting people with high support needs to lead a full life.
- Give you the chance to hear about the great work happening across the country.

Who should come?

3 people from each Inclusion North member area, including:

- People & families
- Person Centred Planners
- Health Facilitators
- Anyone with an interest in supporting people to create a film about their life.
- Anyone working to make Inclusion happen.

Where is it happening?

Mind the Gap Studios
Silk Warehouse
Patent Street Bradford
BD9 4SA

This venue has a fully accessible changing place with a hoist.

How much will it cost?

This event is free for members of Inclusion North. Spare places not taken up by our members can be bought for £80.00 per place.
