Registration and arrival coffee 1.30pm, meeting 2.00pm, conclusion 4.00pm; followed by ACAMH Wales AGM

Marian Evans

Coordinator with the Educational and Child Psychology Service of Rhondda Cynon Taff and Merthyr Tydfil

Meeting Overview

The afternoon will cover recent developments for ages 3-19 sharing the latest research as well as views from school staff, governors and parents. The success of Nurture Groups has been recognised on an international level with multi-agency involvement spreading from education to the care homes and the Youth Offending Service.

Presenter Overview

Marian Evans was previously a behaviour support teacher who became interested in the effects of Attachment Disorder on educational achievements when referrals for intervention multiplied to a phenomenal extent. Now the coordinator with the Educational and Child Psychology Service of Rhondda Cynon Taff and Merthyr Tydfil, her belief in the success of Nurture Groups to change the outcomes for pupils, families and communities has led to her becoming the Chair of the Board of Trustees of the Nurture Group Network.
