

Pain in Children with Severe and Complex Disability Conference

Friday 16th November 2007

Charles Hastings Education Centre
Worcestershire Royal Hospital
Charles Hastings Way
Worcester

Speakers and presentations include

Dr Anne Hunt - Senior Research Fellow, University of Central Lancashire.
Sue Robertson - Study Coordinator, Royal College of Nursing Research Institute.
The Paediatric Pain Profile (PPP), a pain assessment tool for children with severe disability.
Results from an implementation study in the Midlands.

Trudy Ward - Practice Educator, Chailey Heritage Clinical Services.

Parent Speaker

Talking about pain. Using the PPP with families,

Dr Richard Morton - Consultant Paediatrician, Derby Children's Hospital.
Spasticity, a common cause of pain and distress in cerebral palsy,

Clare Jones - SpR / Lecturer Dental Public Health, The University of Manchester
Improving oral health of children and adults with impairment and disability.

Anna Goldsmith - Postural Care Skills Programme.
Postural care - positioning to reduce pain.

Dr Renee McCulloch - Palliative Care Consultant, Great Ormond Street Children's Hospital, London.
Managing pain at end of life.

Chair. Professor Bernie Carter - Professor of Children's Nursing, University of Central Lancashire.

Fee — £35

FREE to Parents

For further information and booking form, please contact

Tanya Smith—Project Administrator
Phone: 01865 787114
Email: tanya.smith@rcn.org.uk