

Supported by

The Hesley Group
Enhancing Lives

The National Autistic Society

Book by 31 July to receive a 10% discount!!

Personalisation and autism

Making assessments person-centred

Thursday 10 September 2009

Holiday Inn, Birmingham City

In association with

A one-day conference aimed at social care professionals and social care students to consider the issues around assessing adults on the autism spectrum.

Keynote speakers to include:

- | | |
|--------------------------|--|
| > Chairperson | British Association of Social Workers |
| > Mark Lever | Chief Executive, The National Autistic Society |
| > David O'Connor | Principal of Adult Services, The Hesley Group |
| > Dr Glenys Jones | The University of Birmingham |
| > Selina Postgate | A person on the autism spectrum |
| > Megan Lloyd | Self-Directed Support Coordinator, NAS |
| > Andrew Powell | Support Programmes Coordinator, NAS |
| > Mari Saeki | Family Services Development Project, NAS |

Delegate fees

Early promotion discount:

£148.50 & VAT

Standard fee:

£165 & VAT

NAS or BASW members/students:

£120 & VAT

Book your place before Friday 31
July to benefit from our early promotion rate!

Attendance at this conference will count towards 1 day or 6 hours of your post registration training and learning (PRTL)

For more information

T 0115 9113367

E conference@nas.org

W www.autism.org.uk/conferences

NAS Conference and Events Team
6th Floor Castle Heights
72 Maid Marian Way
Nottingham NG1 6BJ

Delegates will be invited to attend interactive workshop sessions giving them the opportunity to look in more detail at making assessments person-centred.

Workshop topics will include:

- > Making assessments person-centred
- > A parent's perspective of autism spectrum disorders
- > Knowledge sets
- > The role of a social worker in personalisation & the implications of the green paper
- > Person-centred annual reviews

The conference will run from 9.30am until 4.00pm and the delegate fee includes all refreshments, a buffet lunch, entrance to workshops and a comprehensive delegate pack.

Book today!

www.autism.org.uk/confbookings

Your autism charity