

From Policy to Practice #2

York 9th June
London 30th June

Debra Moore Associates are pleased to announce an updated 'mark 2' version of our popular 'Policy to Practice' workshops that were first run in 2008.

This year's workshops will focus on the content and impact of recent policies relating to the care and treatment of people with mental health problems and/or challenging behaviour including offenders

This participative workshop will be facilitated by Debra Moore & speakers include

Mark Freeman

Primary and Social Care Policy Lead - Offender Health, Department of Health

Alick Bush

Clinical Director – Sheffield Health & Social Care Trust

Jo Poynter

Valuing People Now Team – Department of Health

Dave Ferguson

Consultant Nurse & Academic Practitioner – Hampshire Partnership NHS Foundation Trust & University of Southampton

Aims of the workshop will be to provide an opportunity to

1. Increase understanding of the policy context and in particular current mental health policy New Horizons and guidance relating to offenders such as the Bradley Review and the delivery plan Improving Health, Supporting Justice
2. To consider the impact current health and social care policies in relation to the role and function of learning disability services now and in the future including mechanisms such as personal health budgets.
3. Network and share practice, problems and priorities
4. Who should attend?

Commissioners, providers and practitioners and students who work in specialist learning disability services, mental health services or the criminal justice system
