Celebrating excellence in practice education

As in previous years the annual conference of the Education Forum (Practice Education) continues to address the key and current issues relating to nurse education.

The conference brings together nurses that are involved in preparing the future nursing profession, whether they are working in practice or an educational setting.

The conference this year is addressing the NMC pre-registration review, with an opportunity to 'have your say', discussing the move to all graduate status, and issues relating to disability and preceptorship.

This event will provide an opportunity to discuss and debate issues that are affecting you in a relaxed and enjoyable environment. There will be time in the day to explore and discuss the issues and to share experiences with colleagues, as well as to update your professional knowledge.

Sessions include:

- Pre-registration future
Jan Goldsmith, Professional Adviser, Education, Nursing and Midwifery Council
- Going all graduate:
Challenges of clinical competencies
- Update on the RCN work on dyslexia and dyscalculia as it relates to practice
Bobbie Chadwick, Vice President, RCN
- Interactive audience
discussions
- Panel discussions
