

We are a self-advocacy organisation run by people with learning difficulties.
Our office is in Bristol

Project worker supporting parents with learning difficulties

Full-time - Agenda for Change Band 5

You will:

- Work with parents with learning difficulties
- Train professionals working with parents with learning difficulties
- Work with the Community Learning Difficulties Teams

Skills you need

- You must know about Valuing People
- You must be good at talking and listening
- You must be interested equality of services for people with learning difficulties
- You must have knowledge of issues facing people with learning difficulties

Closing date 10th August 2008

We want more people with learning difficulties and people from black and minority ethnic communities to join our team

For information or a Job pack contact:
Lesley Doherty, Bristol and South
Gloucestershire People First
Telephone: (0117) 941 5842