

Building Safer Communities

A Free Conference for the South West working together with the Police, Crown Prosecution Services,
Community Safety Partnerships and the Community.

Monday 27th November 2006
South West Conference Centre
Exeter

Conference Focus:

- Looking at ways that people at risk of hate crime, to include people with learning disabilities, can achieve their right to be safe in their community.
- To build links between the Police, Crown Prosecution Services, Community Safety Partnerships and people at risk of hate crime.
- To hear how people can speak up and have their say in how things happen.
- To hear about good ways of working from across the UK, to share ideas and look at how we can make new things happen over the South West.
