

Transitions through partnership

Working together for technology-dependent children and young people

Wednesday 22nd June 2011

Registration 9.30am

Keynote presentation by Dr Peter Carter OBE, MCIPD
Chief Executive and General Secretary of the Royal College of Nursing

The Children's Trust, Tadworth is hosting a study day to develop thinking and knowledge around the way professionals can work together to co-ordinate services for children and young people who are technology-dependent.

It is a unique opportunity for medical and clinical professionals to hear discussions surrounding the key issues on policy, joint-working and how transitions really work.

The event will be chaired by Imelda Charles-Edwards
RSCN, RGN, RNT, MA, DipN, DipEd

The cost per delegate is £100 including lunch.
