

Community Living is continuing its popular seminars on social care law with BELINDA SCHWEHR

Protecting personalisation and gearing up for further complex change

Wednesday, 26 June
Directory of Social Change, London

Rosemary Trustam will set the scene looking at the impact of Welfare Reform

Belinda Schwehr will review the support provided by the legal framework, as it is interpreted through Judicial Reviews, including:

- The circumstances in which councils are allowed to review and reduce inputs or funding
- Challenging decisions, protection against costs, and changes in legal services funding
- Direct Payments vs Managed Budgets for contracting for a personalised plan and life choices
- Mental Capacity Act and DOLS update
- Health Budgets, Continuing Health Care and Joint Packages – the pros and cons
- The implications of the Care and Support Bill

These seminars are for everyone - carers, advocates, commissioners and providers

This is what previous delegates have said about them:

"Fantastic, relevant and thought-provoking" "Information critical considering the times we live in"

"Clear, informative – and entertaining" "Delivered in language the layman could understand"

"All day has been really relevant – support planning, direct payments v managed personal budgets especially helpful"

"You've made me rethink our approach to outcomes-based support planning"
