Ethical Dilemmas in Palliative Care

(Links to KSF: C1, 5; HWB 7; G2)

Ever been confused about how complex end of life care can seem or found yourself wondering if the best decisions have been made? If so, then this session is for you!

Designed to challenge your perceptions, this session will look at the main ethical dilemmas which occur in palliative care.

At the end of this session you will be able to:

- Outline the main ethical dilemmas which commonly occur in end of life and palliative care
- Recognise that dilemmas often do not have straightforward answers but are very complex
- Compare and contrast the possible answers to these dilemmas
- Demonstrate the complexity of these through case studies
