

Ethics and End of Life Care

Speaker: Chris Chaloner, Ethics Advisor

Thursday 23rd April
9.30am to 4.30pm

Venue: St Nicholas Hospice Care
Hardwick Lane, Bury St Edmunds, Suffolk IP33 2QY

Learning Outcomes:

At the end of the day the delegate will:

- ❖ Understand the ethical concept of autonomy
- ❖ Recognise whether adhering to ethical principles always avoids "harm"
- ❖ Understand about ethical decision making and how to resolve ethical conflict
- ❖ Discuss what "Quality of Life" actually means
- ❖ Recognise the moral obligations of the professional role

Cost: £125.00

To book a place email rachel.brown@stnh.org.uk giving your name, job title, employer name, address and phone number. Please send your cheque to the address above or phone 01284 715591 to pay by credit card.

striving for excellence

St Nicholas
Hospice Care

A Registered Charity No. 287773