

Conference generously supported by

Effective Support

for people with Autism Spectrum Conditions

- Tuesday 11 June, 2013 -

9:00am - 4:30pm at South Marston Mercure Hotel, Swindon, SN3 4SH

SEQOL are proud to offer you a unique one-day conference offering a chance to network and learn with professionals and those involved with people with Autism Spectrum Conditions.

Who should attend?

Anyone wanting to develop their skills supporting adults or young people with an Autism Spectrum Condition.

What the conference offers?

With a focus on evidence-based practice and real-life approaches, the conference will improve understanding through an insight into the evidence base alongside practical ideas around support. This conference will not assume pre-existing knowledge of ASC but will focus on including the most-up-to-date research and practice in all areas it explores, presented by experienced practitioners or people with ASC themselves.

Speakers:

Mark Lever: Chief Executive Officer of the National Autistic Society

Richard Mills: Research Director for National Autistic Society and Research Autism

Michael Swaffield: Department of Health lead for Autism

Sue Smith: Professional Lead for Autism/Researcher

Oriana Morrison-Clarke: Specialist Speech and Language Therapist (Autism Spectrum Conditions)

Kim Jenkins: Specialist Adult Social Worker in Autism Spectrum Conditions

Ann King: Supported Employment Manager

Julie Dalton: Specialist Occupational Therapist

Martina Montague: Specialist Hearing Therapist

Jo Shackell: Specialist Community Nurse for Autism Spectrum Conditions

Jackie Lund: Community Matron

Paul Grubb: Presenter with ASC

Chloe Grubb: Presenter with ASC

Topics (these topics may be subject to change)

- Supporting people with autism spectrum conditions and offending behaviour
- Making employment work for people with Aspergers and for employers
- Approaches to understanding and supporting communication for people with Asperger's Syndrome.
- The role of the Specialist Social Worker with people with Autism Spectrum Conditions
- Quality of life for people with borderline learning disability and Autism Spectrum Conditions
- Current thinking and best practice for women with Autism Spectrum Conditions
- Sensory Integration approaches for people with Autism Spectrum Conditions
- Advocacy and Autism Spectrum Conditions
- Stress in ASC- What's the big deal?
- Active input into the Review of the 2010 Adult Autism Strategy.

What's included

As well as networking opportunities and access to a number of informative stands during the event, the conference price includes

- Refreshments
- Buffet Lunch
- Conference pack
- Hard copies of all workshops

Please note that some afternoon workshops will have limited places and will be bookable on the day on a first-come first-served basis.

People with ASC

This includes anyone supporting a person with ASC to attend

FREE

Standard delegate rate

Booking received after March 31st 2013.

£179 Inc VAT

Family/Student rate

Discount for students and families of people with ASC

£89 Inc VAT

(please contact us if a family member needs financial support to attend).

Early bird delegate rate

Booking received prior to March 31st, 2013

£149 Inc VAT

SEQOL employees

Limited spaces

FREE