Oily Cart, in collaboration with Ockham's Razor, presents

SOMETHING IN THE AIR

Hello,

This spring, Oily Cart returns to the Unicorn with a unique piece of theatre designed for young people aged 3 to 19 with Profound and Multiple Learning Disabilities or an Autistic Spectrum Disorder.

The makers of 2007's Blue have teamed up with aerial theatre specialists Ockham's Razor to present Something in the Air, an interactive show in which the young people will fly amongst the aerial performers.

The production is unique because each participant will be comfortably and safely seated in a specially designed chair in which he or she can be gently winched up into the air. There, participants can swing, bounce and sway along with the aerial performers. Each participant must have an adult companion. The companions each have their own seat alongside the young person and help to choose how high to go, or how low to stay.

Young people who cannot transfer from a wheelchair may also fully participate, as each performance has two spaces for platforms designed especially to allow wheelchair users to be raised into the air.

There is a maximum capacity of just six young people and six adult companions for each performance. Due to this limited capacity, and the unique nature of the show, we expect it to sell out very quickly, so if you are interested in booking tickets, please call our box office on 020 7645 0560 as soon as possible.

Please see the reverse of this letter for a performance schedule and ticket prices.

A short video of the production can be viewed at: www.oilycart.org.uk/complex\_disabilities/current

We hope you can join us.

Best wishes,

The Unicorn Team
