

Ravensbourne School

Neave Crescent, Romford, Essex RM3 8HN

www.ravensbourne-school.co.uk

What's Special about a Special School?

A forum for teachers and others working with students with Special Needs, including PMLD, SLD and Challenging Behaviours

Saturday 11th May 2013
Ravensbourne School, Romford, Essex

An interesting range of sessions, with opportunities to meet, chat and exchange ideas at Ravensbourne, a 2-19 Special School in the London Borough of Havering.

Workshops and forums to include:

Sleep clinic

5P approach

iPads

Early Years

Sensory Rooms

Inclusion in Early Years setting

Manual Handling & Key Movers

Sherbourne Movement

Mainstream & Special schools working together

Informal tours of the school resources

Cost: £30 (including refreshments & lunch) 10am – 3pm

Book your place by returning the form & enclosing a cheque payable to 'Ravensbourne School'.
More information available from admin@ravensbourne.havering.sch.uk

Nearest stations are a short cab journey from the school:
Harold Wood (overground from Liverpool Street),
Upminster (District Line tube), Newbury Park (Central Line tube).
Ample parking onsite

What's Special about a Special School?

- Please reserve me a place on Saturday 11th May 2013
- I enclose a £30 cheque (payable to 'Ravensbourne School')

Name:

School:

Contact email address:

Contact telephone number:

Interest area:

Signed:

Dietary, mobility or medical requirements the organisers may need to take account of when organising the conference:

Return this form and your payment to:
Ravensbourne School
Neave Crescent, Harold Hill, Romford Essex RM3 8HN
admin@ravensbourne.havering.sch.uk

